In the headlines again this week is the fact that the U.S. Army once used germ warfare tactics on Americans to test the system. It was supposed to be harmless germs, and maybe most of them were. What puzzles me is, how can they test if the germs were harmless? If they don't do anything, how can we get any results?

The gunman who was holding a police officer hostage until he could talk to President Carter will set a ball rolling that is hard to stop if he is successful. Every nut in the nation that wants to talk to Mr. Carter will try the same tactics. The best thing is to ignore such demands (unless I am the hostage). Harold Martin, publisher of THE MONTGOMERY ADVERTISER, reported the details on an attempted smear campaign against him recently. It seems that, according to Martin, a Montgomery police officer who was upset with Martin's stories about the Montgomery police, set up the attempted smear to embarrass Martin. Somehow Martin got the straight story and put it in the paper, again adding mud to an already muddy situation in the police department of our capital city. police department of our capital city. I was reading recently that doctors have devised a test for folks who are known to drink too much whiskey. It will recognize the fact even if they are sober by the build-up of something or other in the blood. It is all right with me but I fail to see the purpose of the test. A drunk is a drunk and sooner or later folks will know it and either join him (or her) or avoid him and the threat of the doctor knowing will not stop a single one.

PRESSBOX

There were Area and Regional tournaments going on throughout the state last week, but I only managed to watch games in Andalusia, Clayton, New Brockton and Red Level.

BASKETBALL ENTERS FINAL ROUND The prep basketball season ends on Saturday, and I hate to admit it, but I'll be glad when it's over! It seems that this past season was the least exciting of any I can remember. Elba had a mediocre year, and there just wasn't any team around you could really get behind and truly support.

I guess the high point of the season came in New Brockton when Dothan played the Gamecocks. Dothan's 6-8 Carl Mitchell out on quite a show during and after the game. Mitchell's 'slam-dunks'' sent chills through the fans and made everyone glad that the dunk was legalized.

The best game I saw was Brundidge's upset win over Eufaula. Eufaula came into the game undefeated, but the scrappy Bulldogs from Pike County showed no fear, and literally ran the un-The worst game of the year came last week when Luverne edged by Daleville. Luverne, which advanced to the state tourney, played a deliberate type game, and combined with Dale-ville's slow-motion team, the two Class 2A schools put on a very boring performance for this neutral observer.

REF DECKED IN ANDALUSIA Andalusia's hopes for a state tourney berth were ended last Friday when one of their fans slugged a referee and the game was forfeited to Trov. The Andy-Troy game was supposed to be a cakewalk for the Bulldogs, but Troy came ready to play and took total charge of the contest. The Trojans play a rough type of basketball, and totally intimidated Andalusia in the opening half while rolling up

The Andalusia crowd was obviously stunned by the Trojans' dominance, and took out their displeasure by jeering at the referees. As the refs went into the dressing room at halftime, an Andy fan punched Bobby Eskew, one of the officials, in the Eskew fell into a chair while police arrested the fan. but in less than a minute a close call was made against a Troy After a lengthy discussion, tournament officials decided to clear the gym of all spectators and to continue the game with referees from the Brewton Association. The officials did arrive at the gym, but Troy Coach Bob McCracken said it wasn't fair for his team to have to play following the nearly two-hour delay, and protested the decision.

I've had a slight change of plans and won't be heading to the state tourney until tomorrow (Friday). However, I'll make it for the semi-finals and finals, and I'm sure 12 games in 2 days will be enough basketball for me!

IN CLOSING Let's have some more fun comparing opponents. Louisville (2-23) beat Ozark, Ozark beat New Brockton, New Brockton beat Troy, and Troy is in the state tourney. Go, Red Devils!
